2009-2010 INFLUENZA VACCINATION PROGRAM

FOR ALL MILITARY HEALTHCARE ELIGIBLE BENEFICIARIES (NOT ACTIVE DUTY)

This page updated/verified as of 24 September 2009

A. General Info:

Expect rolling delivery of vaccine supplies by November.
No vaccine shortage anticipated this year for either Seasonal or H1N1.
Single Vaccine for all (except children under 10 getting vaccinated for the first time. They will require a second vaccination at least 30 days after first.)

B. Specific SEASONAL Influenza Schedule (H1N1 Schedule, see next page):

WHO (Per CDC Prioritization)	WHEN	WHERE (Days/Hours)				Vaccine Formulations Recommendations
	Available Now?	BHEC* (Bangor Base) (TBD)	OB Clinic & Immunization Clinic, NHB (M-F, 0800-1500)	Bangor Branch Health Clinic (TBD)	Everett Branch Health Clinic (TBD)	Weakened Virus (Called "Live") Nasal Spray	Inactivated Virus (Called "Killed") Injected
Pregnant Women	YES		Walk-in PREGNANT PATIENTS ONLY & with OB visit			Not Recommended	Recommended
Anyone living with child under 6 MONTHS of age	Pending					To be determined at time of vaccination	To be determined at time of vaccination
Anyone between 6 months and 19 years of age	Pending					Recommended for ages 2-49.	Recommended for 6 months-2 years
Anyone older than 50 yo	Pending					Not Recommended	Recommended
Anyone at any age with a chronic medical condition (higher risk for flu complications)	Pending					Not generally recommended	Generally recommended
Anyone living with someone at higher risk for flu complications	Pending					To be determined at time of vaccination	To be determined at time of vaccination
All other persons	Pending					To be determined at time of vaccination	To be determined at time of vaccination

C. H1N1 Vaccination Schedule. MORE SPECIFIC DETAILS AFTER DOD AND BUMED PROVIDE GUIDANCE.

WHO (Per CDC Prioritization)	WHEN	WHERE (Days/Hours)				Vaccine Formulations Recommendations
	Available Now?	BHEC* (Bangor Base) (TBD)	OB Clinic & Immunization Clinic, NHB (TBD)	Bangor Branch Health Clinic (TBD)	Everett Branch Health Clinic (TBD)	Weakened Virus (Called "Live") Nasal Spray	Inactivated Virus (Called "Killed") Injected
Pregnant Women	Pending					Not recommended	Recommended
Anyone living with child under 6 MONTHS of age	Pending					To be determined at time of vaccination	To be determined at time of vaccination
Anyone between 6 months and 24 years of age	Pending					To be determined at time of vaccination	To be determined at time of vaccination
Anyone between 25-64 with a chronic medical condition (higher risk for flu complications)	Pending					To be determined at time of vaccination	To be determined at time of vaccination
Anyone living with someone at higher risk for flu complications	Pending					To be determined at time of vaccination	To be determined at time of vaccination
All other persons	Pending					To be determined at time of vaccination	To be determined at time of vaccination

NHB's Preventive Medicine will be conducting their annual Influenza Vaccination Clinic at BHEC. This is tentatively planned for November. Check back for actual dates and times.

* BHEC = Bremerton Health Education Center located on Naval Base Kitsap-Bangor. Click here for directions.

Chronic Medical conditions:

1. Chronic Pulmonary (including asthma)
2. Cardiovascular (except hypertension)
3. Renal (Kidney) / Hepatic (Liver)/ Hematological conditions (including Sickle Cell Disease)
4. Neurological / Neuromuscular
5. Metabolic Disorders (including diabetes).