Subj: DELEGATION OF PRIVILEGING AUTHORITY AND ASSIGNMENT OF BUREAU OF MEDICINE AND SURGERY RESPONSIBILITIES

Ref: (a) BUMED ltr 5216 Ser M5/17UM5202 of 31 Jul 2017
     (b) BUMEDINST 6010.30
     (c) BUMEDINST 6010.29A

1. Purpose. To provide Medical Department personnel and leadership information on the change in the delegated privileging authority for Navy Reserve healthcare practitioners whose credentials records are maintained at the Centralized Credentialing and Privileging Directorate, Bureau of Medicine and Surgery (BUMED) Detachment, Jacksonville, Florida and to assign headquarters responsibilities for Navy Medicine’s Credentialing and Privileging Program.

2. Scope. Ships and stations having Medical Department personnel.

3. Background. Per reference (a), the delegated privileging authority for Navy Reserve healthcare practitioners changed from the Assistant Deputy Chief, Healthcare Operations (BUMED-M3) to Assistant Deputy Chief, Patient Safety, Clinical Quality and High Reliability (BUMED-M5).

4. Policy. With the delegation of privileging authority in reference (a), the Assistant Deputy Chief, BUMED-M5 assumes the roles and responsibilities for Navy Medicine’s Credentialing and Privileging Program as defined in reference (b).

5. Records Management. Records created as a result of this notice, regardless of media and format, must be managed per SECNAV Manual 5210.1 of January 2012.

6. Cancellation. This policy remains in effect until incorporated into references (b) and (c).
