

Captain Donna N. Bradley Naval Hospital Beaufort Executive Officer

Captain Donna Bradley reported on board Naval Hospital Beaufort, in July 2016 and is serving as the Executive Officer.

A native of Saline, Michigan, Capt. Bradley graduated from Northwestern Michigan College in 1987 as a Licensed Practical Nurse. In 1991, she graduated from Kirtland Community College with an Associate Degree in Nursing, and received her commission through the Technical Nurse Warrant Officer Program. She graduated from the University of Connecticut with a Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree in 1997 and a Master of Science in Nursing degree as a Perioperative Clinical Nurse Specialist in 1999.

Following Officer Indoctrination School in Newport, Rhode Island, Capt. Bradley reported to the Naval Hospital San Diego, California. During her tour she was assigned as a staff nurse on the Mother Infant and the Same Day Surgery Units. Capt. Bradley was selected for Full Time Out Service Training and reported in March 1995, to the University of Connecticut in Storrs, Connecticut.

Upon graduation from the University of Connecticut, Capt. Bradley reported to Naval Hospital Groton, Connecticut where she was assigned as a staff nurse on the Medical Surgical Nursing Unit. While serving at Naval Hospital Groton, she was the Command Managed Equal Opportunity Officer and was selected to attend the Perioperative Nurse Program in Jacksonville, Florida. Upon return from the Perioperative Nurse Training Program in July 1999, she was assigned as a staff nurse and later Division Officer of the Main Operating Room. In 1998, Capt. Bradley was awarded the Senior Leadership Award.

In 2001, Capt. Bradley reported to Naval Hospital Rota, Spain as a staff operating room nurse. She was selected to serve with the Department of Defense Space Shuttle Medical Support Operations Team. She assumed the duties as Department Head, Perioperative Services and Command Managed Equal Opportunity Officer. She deployed in support of Operation MEDFLAG 2003 to Er-Rachidia Morocco. Capt. Bradley was awarded the Clinical Nurse Excellence Award in 2002.

In 2004, Capt. Bradley was assigned as a Medical Programs Officer Recruiter for Navy Recruiting District Michigan in Ann Arbor, Michigan and served as the command Casualty Calls Assistance Officer. She was selected as Navy Recruiting District Michigan Officer Recruiter of the Year and Diversity Officer Recruiter of the Year for FY 2005 and Officer Recruiter of the Year for FY 2006.

Capt. Bradley reported to Naval Hospital Jacksonville, Florida in 2007 as the Department Head for the Main Operating Room, Post Anesthesia Care Unit and the Sterile Processing Department. While serving at Naval Hospital Jacksonville, Capt. Bradley was selected to deploy as the Division Officer for the Joint Medical Group in support of the Joint Task Force, Guantanamo Bay Cuba.

In 2010, Capt. Bradley reported to U.S. Naval Hospital Yokosuka, Japan where she served as Department Head, Perioperative Services. In 2011 she was competitively selected as Director Branch Health Clinics where she led 390 personnel at seven geographically dispersed and remote branch health clinics. Capt. Bradley was a member of the Clinical Nurse Specialist Force Strategic Goal Committee.

Capt. Bradley reported to the Office of the Naval Inspector General, in March 2013 and served as the Assistant Inspector General for Medical Programs.

Captain Bradley's awards include a Meritorious Service Medal, Joint Service Commendation Medal, four Navy Commendation Medals, two Navy Achievement Medals, the Navy Military Outstanding Volunteer Service Medal and various awards and service ribbons.