

Command Judge Advocate
Naval Hospital, Bremerton, Washington
Freedom of Information Office

The Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) is the law that gives you, the public, the right to request data from the government. Not all data requested is released. Some data is protected under one or more of FOIA's nine exemptions.

The Privacy Act Program is the law that gives protection to individual's rights to privacy and tells the government how it is to be done. These two acts allow the release of data under legal criteria and privacy rights. Naval Hospital, Bremerton's FOIA and Privacy Act Program are under the Department of Navy FOIA and Privacy Programs, located in the office of the Chief of Naval Operations. The Navy requires each command to have a knowledgeable program director under the title Coordinator. The Coordinator for all FOIA and Privacy Act matters of Naval Hospital, Bremerton is: Mr. Peter Medina, you may direct questions about FOIA and the Privacy Act to him at (360) 475-4644.

Privacy Act requests cannot be submitted by way of the web or online request. Rather, they must be submitted in writing, signed by the requester, and sent to the command address, Attn: FOIA.

If you want information about the command, first check through the Naval Hospital web site. If you do not find what you are seeking, follow the instructions below to submit a request.
