

ARTHROGRAM GUIDANCE

WHAT IS ARTHROGRAM

An Arthrogram is a procedure that is performed under fluoroscopy that images the joint space.

WHAT TO EXPECT

A needle will be placed in between the joint space and a dye will be injected into the space. This may feel uncomfortable; however, it is necessary to see the mechanics of the joint space. Some Arthrogram's are followed with an MRI after the injection of the radiology dye.