EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES GUIDE

2017

U.S. Naval Hospital Okinawa, Japan

Our Mission

Enable readiness and wellness while providing safe, accessible, high-quality, patient-centered healthcare.

About Us

U.S. Naval Hospital Okinawa, Japan is the largest overseas Military Treatment Facility and is the referral center for the entire western Pacific. Jointly staffed by Navy, Army, Air Force and Marine Corps personnel, the hospital serves a beneficiary population of 47,000 active duty personnel, their family members, civilian employees, contract personnel and retirees. In addition to caring for the on-island population, the hospital also serves as a referral hospital for over 189,000 beneficiaries throughout the Western Pacific.

U.S. Naval Hospital Okinawa, Japan operates six Branch Medical Clinics located on Marine Corps installations throughout the island. These branch clinics are located at Camp Schwab, Camp Hansen, Camp Courtney, Camp Foster, Marine Corps Air Station Futenma, and Camp Kinser, and are staffed by personnel from U.S. Naval Hospital and III Marine Expeditionary Force (III MEF) major subordinate commands.

Military Medical Home Ports, located on Camp Kinser, Camp Courtney, and Camp Foster, provide primary care services to our active duty service members and their families.
