

COL Hershman was born and raised in Allentown, PA. He is a 1987 graduate of Lehigh University, earning a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Government. He received a Masters Degree in Health Care Administration from Baylor University in 1996, and is a Fellow in the American College of Healthcare Executives since 2000. COL Hershman is a graduate of the Army Medical Department's Officer Basic and Advanced Course, Command and General Staff College, US Army War College.

He has served successfully in a variety of command and staff positions to include: Medical Platoon Leader for 2/37th Armor Battalion, Boblingen, Germany; Executive Officer of C/299th Forward Support Battalion, Goepingen, Germany; Company Commander for Keller Army Community Hospital at West Point; Baylor Resident and Chief of CSD at McDonald Army Community Hospital, Fort Eustis; Executive Officer of the Southeast Regional Medical Command at Fort Gordon; Congressional Action Contact Officer for the Office of The Army Surgeon General (OTSG); and Executive Officer of the 93rd Medical Battalion, Heidelberg, Germany. He deployed with elements of the 93rd in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom in 2003. Upon returning from Germany, COL Hershman served as the Deputy Commander for Administration for Dunham USA Health Clinic, Carlisle Barracks from 2004-2006. Prior to Commanding the 187th Medical Battalion, he served as the Assistant Chief of the Department of Health Care Operations, Brooke Army Medical Center. COL Hershman graduated from the United States Army War College in July 2009. COL Hershman comes to McDonald from William Beaumont Army Medical Center where he served as the Chief of Staff/Deputy Commander for Administration.

His military awards and decorations include the Bronze Star Medal, the Meritorious Service Medal (four Oak-leaf clusters), Meritorious Unit Citation, the Army Superior Unit Award, the Army Commendation Medal (three Oak-leaf clusters), the Army Achievement Medal (three Oak-leaf clusters) the Army Staff Identification Badge, and the Order of Military Medical Merit. He received the American College of Healthcare Executive Army Regent's Award in 2001.

Borned and raised in Allentown, PA, he is a graduate of Lehigh University, PA with a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Government and a Master's Degree in Health Care Administration from Baylor University, TX. He is a Fellow in the American College of Healthcare Executives. COL Hershman is a graduate of the Army Medical Department's Officer Basic and Advanced Course, Command and General Staff College, and the U.S. Army War College.

A Medical Service Corps Officer, he served successfully in a variety of command and staff positions to include: Medical Platoon Leader, 2/37th Armor Battalion, Boblingen, GE; Executive Officer, C/299th Forward Support Battalion, Goepingen, GE; Company Commander, Keller Army Community Hospital, West Point, NY; Baylor Resident/Chief of Clinical Services, McDonald Army Hospital, Fort Eustis, VA; Executive Officer, Southeast Regional Medical Command, Fort Gordon, GA; Congressional Action Contact Officer, Office of The Army Surgeon General; and Executive Officer, 83rd Medical Battalion, Heidelberg, GE. In 2003, he deployed in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom. At Dunham Health Clinic, Carlisle Barracks, he served as the Deputy Commander for Administration; in Korea, Commanded, 187th Medical Battalion; and at Brooke Army Medical Center, TX, served as Assistant Chief, Department of Health Care Operations. Prior to coming to MCAHC he was Chief of Staff and Deputy Commander of Administration, William Beaumont Army Medical Center , TX,

His military awards and decorations include the Bronze Star Medal, Meritorious Service Medal (4 OLC), Meritorious Unit Citation, Army Superior Unit Award, Army Commendation Medal (3 OLC), Army Achievement Medal (3 OLC), Army Staff Identification Badge, and the Order of Military Medical Merit. He received the American College of Healthcare Executive Army Regent's Award in 2001.