Subj: MEDICAL LOGISTICS AWARDS PROGRAM

Ref: (a) SECNAVINST 1650.1J
(b) BUMEDINST 1650.1B

Encl: (1) Commander Robert Allan Edgar Biography
(2) Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal Citation Sample
(3) Navy Civilian Service Achievement Medal Citation Sample
(4) Flag Letter of Commendation Citation Sample
(5) Award Nomination Package Sample

1. Purpose. Medical logisticians are vital for planning, obtaining, and maintaining the required materiel and services necessary for the effective and efficient delivery of healthcare services support for Navy Medicine. By recognizing and encouraging notable contributions, the Bureau of Medicine and Surgery (BUMED) Medical Logistics Awards Program seeks to honor and distinguish the officer, enlisted, and civilian members within the medical logistics community per references (a) and (b) and enclosures (1) through (5). This is a complete revision and should be reviewed in its entirety.

2. Cancellation. BUMEDINST 5305.3C.

3. Scope and Applicability. This instruction applies to Navy and Marine Corps military and federal government civilian personnel currently working in medical logistics at a Navy Medicine Readiness and Training Command (NAVMEDREADTRNCMD), Navy Medicine Readiness and Training Unit (NAVMEDREADTRNUNIT), or specialty command. The Medical Logistics Awards Program seeks to bestow special recognition to individuals and a team who epitomize professionalism and excellence. Contributions must occur in the calendar year prior to when the award is to be given.

4. Policy. This instruction outlines the policy to annually recognize applicable personnel for their significant achievements and contributions to medical logistics in Navy Medicine.

a. Personnel must not be re-nominated for an award received within the previous 3 years.

b. The BUMED Medical Logistics Awards Program Review Board will review and score all submissions. BUMED-N4 will review the board results and verify the winners in each category.

c. At the conclusion of the awards process, a message will be sent to all commands identifying the award winners with an endorsement from the Surgeon General of the Navy (SG). The samples for the citations that accompany the various awards can be found in enclosures (2), (3), and (4). These include the Navy Civilian Service Achievement Medal (NCSAM), Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medal (NAM), and a Flag Letter of Commendation (FLOC).

d. All citations (NCSAMs, NAMs, and FLOCs) will be signed by regional commanders, unless the award winner is from BUMED Headquarters (HQ), in which case the SG will sign.

5. Roles and Responsibilities

a. Director, Logistics and Sustainment Policy and Programs (BUMED-N42) will appoint board membership, serve as chairman, manage the awards program, and act as the overall advocate for medical logistics awards.

b. BUMED-N42 will release a calling message in December of each calendar year to open the nomination period. All nomination packages are due by 31 January. If the due date falls on a weekend, packages are due the prior business day. If no nominations are received for a particular award category within the nomination period, the award will not be given for the calendar year.

c. The board members for the officer, enlisted, civilian, and team categories will consist of qualified members recommended by BUMED-N42 and the enlisted technical liaison for biomedical engineering.

d. Board members will evaluate and grade nomination packages using NAVMED 5305/4 Logistics Awards Score Sheet.

e. Each award has been established to recognize an individual or team for outstanding accomplishment and performance of duty during the preceding calendar year. The board will choose one overall selection per award category. Awards approved for the BUMED Logistics Awards Program will be presented at a general assembly during the annual logistics summit or similar group meeting. If the summit or group meeting cannot be held, award winners will be mailed their awards.

f. BUMED-N42 will submit awards packages to the BUMED Awards Manager (BUMED-N02B11) with Director, Maritime Headquarters (BUMED-N03) endorsement 60 days prior to presentation. BUMED-N02B11 will process award submissions and provide completed awards to BUMED-N42 for distribution and presentation during the Navy Medicine Logistics Summit or per subparagraph 5e.

6. Categories. This paragraph outlines the categories for recognizing individuals and teams whose contributions at a NAVMEDREADTRNCMD, NAVMEDREADTRNUNIT, or specialty command have significantly and quantifiably supported or enhanced the Navy Medicine logistics mission and profession. Nominees may be involved in any or all phases of Navy Medicine logistics. Specifically, they will be scored on their leadership and management ability, technical expertise, organizational support and responsiveness, materiel and cost savings, procedural enhancements, and contributions to audit readiness efforts.

a. Officer Individual Achievement Awards (Subspecialty 1802 and 3121 Logistics Officers):

d. Best Cross-Functional Team Award. Teams are groups brought together from different disciplines to perform a specific task or goal. This award is for outstanding team performance and designed to recognize a cross-functional team whose accomplishments aid in the advancement of medical logistics functions, and contribute to the achievement of outstanding medical logistics business process improvements such as: reduced procurement action lead times, improved influx of contracting, staffing efficiencies, improved acquisition planning processes, improved equipment inventory procedures, life-cycle management, operational readiness in a deployed setting, or Lean Six Sigma accomplishments. The awarded team will receive a personalized plaque and each team member will receive a FLOC.

7. Nomination Packages

a. All award nominations must be results-oriented and focused on performance, mission accomplishment, team building, and leadership. When nominating an individual or team, consider other awards and recognition received, procedural enhancements, command and career community involvement, and innovative problem-solving. Also consider job performance, management ability, prior awards received, materiel and cost savings, process and responsibility, technical expertise, unusual job assignments, job effectiveness, unique job achievements, organizational responsiveness, and support to deploying or deployed operations. Each package must clearly state the intended submission category and be signed by the nominating commander, commanding officer, or officer in charge. A sample award nomination package can be found in enclosure (5).

b. Nomination packages for individuals must include a completed NAVMED 5305/2 Individual Award Nomination Form and Nomination Package Memorandum per enclosure (5) and an OPNAV 1650/3 Personal Award Recommendation completed per references (a) and (b).

c. Nomination packages for team awards must include a completed NAVMED 5305/3 Team Award Nomination and Nomination Package Memorandum.

8. Action. Submit all award nomination packages to BUMED-N42:
