List of Reportable Medical Events

What every Navy Medical Department should know

- Reportable Medical Events are diseases and conditions of public health significance due to their potential for prevention and or mission degradation.
- Per BUMED INST 6220.12C, Navy Medical Department personnel are responsible for reporting Reportable Medical Events.
- Local Preventive Medicine staff will report the event through the Navy's Disease Reporting System internet (DRSi).
- If you diagnose any of these events listed, notify your local Preventive Medicine office.

Local Preventive Medicine staff should contact cognizant NEPMU:

- NEPMU2: usn.hampton-roads.navhospporsva.list.nepmu2norfolk-threatassess@health.mil
- NEPMU5: usn.san-diego.navenpvntmedufive.list.nepmu5-threat-assessment@health.mil
