

Defense Occupational and Environmental Health Readiness System- Industrial Hygiene (DOEHRS-IH) Sustainment Training

DOEHRS-IH is a web-based application that is used to collect industrial hygiene survey information. DOEHRS-IH allows the DoD Military Health System to manage occupational and environmental health risk data and actively track biological, chemical, physical health hazards and engineered nano object process to service members worldwide.

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course is designed to teach students - Industrial Hygiene personnel who will actively enter data into the DOEHRS-IH application - to maneuver and organize data within their Industrial Hygiene Program Office. There is no fee for this course. However, students and their Commands are responsible for their transportation, lodging, and per diem arrangements and expenses.

SKILLS ACQUIRED:

Create and maintain: I.H. program office, serviced organization, and location information; manage shop information - shop personnel, processes, equipment, hazards, hazardous materials, and controls; enter personal and area sampling data; create Similar Exposure Groups (SEGs), and perform exposure assessments.

PREREQUISITES:

- Security clearance
- Send certificates for Privacy Act, HIPPA, and IAA with the application.

COURSE LENGTH: 5 days

COURSE DATES: Please see milSuite-NMCFHPC Industrial Hygiene DOEHRS-IH for updates.

AUDIENCE:

- Students applying for the DOEHRS-IH training who have not attended the course in the past have priority.
- Individuals who have completed the course previously should seek over-the-shoulder training, utilize training material found on the DOEHRS website or the NMCPH-IH SharePoint resources (I.E., IH Buddy).
- Individuals transferring from Army and Air Force with DOEHRS experience do not need to attend the Navy's DOEHRS-IH training. Supervisors will need to ensure that individuals are trained on Navy I.H. standardized surveys (I.E. Train the Trainer).
- Please note - Contract personnel working under the BUMED centralized I.H. services contract will no longer be allowed to attend DOEHRS-IH training provided by the Navy.
