

HMCM(SS/DV/FMF) Brandon L. Lindbeck
United States Navy
Command Master Chief
Naval Medical Readiness Logistics Command

Master Chief Lindbeck hails from Knoxville, Illinois. He graduated Knoxville High School in 1994 and enlisted in the United States Navy in April 1996.

He completed basic training at Recruit Training Command, Great Lakes, Illinois, followed by Hospital Corpsman A-School. He then went on to Field Medical Service School at Marine Corps Base, Camp Pendleton, San Diego, CA. He later completed Submarine Independent Duty Corpsman School in Groton, CT and Navy Dive School in Panama City, FL.

Sea duty assignments include: 12th Marines, Okinawa, Japan; 26th MSSG, Jacksonville, NC; USS MEMPHIS (SSN-691), Groton, CT; USS SAN JUAN (SSN-751), Groton, CT; and the USS MISSISSIPPI (SSN-782), Pearl Harbor, HI.

Shore duty assignments include: Branch Medical Clinic, Brunswick, ME; Naval Undersea Medical Institute, Groton, CT; Naval Health Care New England, Newport, RI; Naval Health Clinic Hawaii, Pearl Harbor, HI, and currently he is the Command Master Chief for the Naval Medical Readiness Logistics Command, Williamsburg, VA.

Master Chief Lindbeck is a graduate of Trident University International, with a Bachelor of Science degree in Health Care Administration.

His decorations include the Navy and Marine Corps Commendation Medals, Navy and Marine Corps Achievement Medals, and various unit and campaign awards.